Vaccination Screening Checks

For a safe and assured return to the workplace

---

Background

---

As we start to recover from the COVID-19 pandemic and adapt to a “new normal” at work, Health and Safety is the core priority of any business. The government’s vaccination program and other schemes are successfully underway and vaccination has become a mandatory requirement for all aspects of life and work.

But even vaccination is not free from the risk of fraud. Individuals have forged their vaccination documents to travel, or submitted fake certificates in order to quickly fulfill requirements, or simply to avoid vaccination. These actions place everyone at risk.

At PT Hill Konsultan Indonesia (“HKI”) we understand these risks and their implications for your business. That is why we have designed a vaccination check to help protect your business from both fraud and health risks. The check is designed to verify a vaccine certificate and ensure a subject is indeed vaccinated.

Objective & Methodology

Objective:

- ✓ To verify a candidate's or employee's vaccination certificate.

Methodology:

- HKI requires the candidate's or employee's vaccine certificate.
- Through searches of public domain records, HKI will verify the certificate - ensuring that the individual's name and NIK are correct, and registered as vaccinated by the government.
- Result is reported in a formal report.
