

COMPLETING A PROPER RESPIRATORY ASSESSMENT

A Webinar Presentation

Chris Petrik, RN, BS, Training Specialist
Elderwerks Educational Services

In this program, we will review normal respiratory anatomy and how lung sounds occur. Chris will take you through the process of proper techniques for obtaining lung-sounds and discuss the importance of identifying what are normal versus non-normal lung sounds. The seriousness of proper documentation of your findings and reporting these findings to the physician will also be discussed.
