Guided Mentoring: Key Learnings

1. Master the Foundations of Board Service ✓
2. Position Your Board Offer
3. Get Board Interviews
4. Ace Your Board Interview

Position Your Board Offer

1. Assess your board readiness
2. Identify the right board for you
3. Create your board value proposition
4. Build your board resume and LinkedIn profile

Assess Your Board Readiness

Before you prepare your first corporate board seat, ask yourself these 10 board-ready questions:

1. Do you have a minimum of 10 to 15 years of experience in a senior executive role in the public, private, crown or not-for-profit sectors?
2. Are you prepared to commit at least 200 to 300 hours per year to a corporate board role?
3. Do you have the support of your own Board of Directors and/or senior executives to serve on a board?
4. Do you have a formal governance certification or designation (C. Dir, ICD.D and/or GCB.D) from the Directors College, the Institute of Corporate Directors and/or Competent Boards?
5. Have you ever served on a board, not-for-profit or for profit?

Assess Your Board Readiness

6. Are you a team player that understands the dynamics of boards is one of the most critical components of good governance?
7. Do you fully understand the role, responsibility and liability of a corporate director?
8. Do you understand the difference between a board of directors role versus a management role?
9. Do you have financial acumen-can you read and understand financial statements?
10. Do you have experience in critical areas in our changing world such as Risk Management, International Markets, M&A, Cyber Security, Digital Media, ESG, Big Data, etc.?

Identify the Right Board For You

- Type of Organization
 - Not for Profit, Public Sector, Corporate (size, stage of growth, future state)
- Time Commitment
 - > 200-300 hours/annum, sponsorship
- Industry Sector
 - is it an industry you have experience or is it an industry you are interested in?
- Compensation
 - board compensation can vary depending on the size & stage of the company you are serving on a board

Create Your Board Value Proposition

- Your board value proposition is what you bring to the board room table and how you differentiate yourself.
- Specific expertise, skillsets the board currently lacks, and how you are a leader in an industry (or a synergistic industry)

Key Board Competencies

- Board level leadership such as chairing committees, task forces or key initiatives
- Integrative & critical thinking
- Confidence and ability to participate and contribute meaningfully to board discussion and decision making & fit with the board's culture
- Diversity in its many dimensions- gender, age, Indigenous, visible minority, generational, etc.
- Financial acumen and literacy are table stakes
- Played a leadership role in significant change, transformation, or turnaround; operating and P&L experience
- Experience leading key strategic initiatives coupled with influencing skills
- Prior board or governance experience and capacity to manage board work and agenda

Elevator Pitch

“I have entrepreneurial, financial & governance expertise with high growth and transformational companies in technology, retail, consumer and cannabis sectors.” -Deborah Rosati

Build Your Board Resume and LinkedIn Profile

Your board resume and LinkedIn profile should highlight your:

Value proposition, i.e. the value add you bring to a Board, your unique offering; Skills and expertise;

Industry-specific knowledge;

Career accomplishments — highlight your executive and other relevant leadership roles to showcase your understanding of the business, the industry, and the broader macro environment in order to gain the respect and confidence of the current board members;

Speaking engagements and awards — list areas that you are sought after as an expert or have thought-leadership in and any awards that recognize you for your accomplishments;

Current and past board experience — highlight the committees you have served on and the leadership roles that you have taken, e.g. Chair of a Committee or Chair of the Board.
