WELCOME

Are the leaders in your talent pipeline ready to tackle your biggest problems of today and tomorrow?

Invest in their development at the North American Academy while supporting impact in communities across the world.

In a time where organizations are having to rethink employee retention and loyalty, gain the edge by investing in your people so they can be prepared and excited about tackling the big problems of your company and community.

Not looking to send employees but interested in investing in the leaders who will lead the positive change in communities, businesses, and on the international stage? Your support is key in empowering the leaders of tomorrow and we'd love to work with you.

The JCI USA North American Academy is a premier leadership development program designed to empower your future leaders with skills vital for long-term organizational success. Over the course of four days, attendees are led through various leadership modules and given opportunities to apply their new skills to real-world challenges.

Your sponsorship goes beyond one weekend - the impact on leaders has ripple effects across the country and world. With expert-led workshops, networking opportunities, and hands-on experiences, attendees gain confidence, strategic insights and tangible tools, fostering innovation and leadership excellence.

WHAT IS THE ACADEMY?

Academy attendees develop and apply their skills to become impactful and effective leaders by completing various modules throughout the week, which include (but aren't limited to):

- Strategic Thinking where attendees learn how to look at the bigger picture when leading teams and driving results.
- Critical Problem Solving where attendees learn skills to identify and address root causes of problems instead of symptoms.
- Leadership Styles through Behavioral Elements where attendees learn about their individual leadership style, using the same development structure as many Fortune 500 companies.
- Mapping Habits where attendees examine their own schedules and how they can most effectively leverage their time and unique skillsets to achieve results.
