You'll leave inspired and ready to drive immediate improvement in your organization.*

APPLY TODAY!

November 1-4, 2023 • New Orleans, LA, USA

Prepare for a leadership experience like no other.

North American Academy includes about 30 hours of training plus group work in small groups during three days together with delegates and trainers from around the world. When the attendee arrives home from the JCI North American Academy, they will have learned new skills relating to interacting in and leading a group, how to motivate others, built an international network of like-minded people and future colleagues, and learned how to act strategically with community and organizational stakeholders to create positive change.

The course modules include:

- Improve communication skills in a multicultural environment
- Discover personality types and analyze the participant's strengths and improvement areas
- Complete group challenges with problem solving and team coordination
- Demonstrate and develop presentation techniques during a group project delivery
- Develop leadership skills and experience group development phases
- Deepen strategic thinking debate and advocacy skills related to community challenges

We hope you'll join us in this amazing experience and would like to thank the USJC Foundation for making this event possible! If you have any questions, please reach out to Newlyn Wing.

Academy Location & Accommodations

The Academy will take place at the Embassy Suites in New Orleans at:
315 Julia St, New Orleans, LA 70130

Lodging is included in your registration fee and you'll be matched with 1-2 other roommates for the week (each person will have their own bed with same-sex participants). Accommodations will be made from Wednesday, November 1 through Sunday, November 5. If you would like information about booking additional hotel nights, please contact Newlyn Wing at nwing@iciusa.org (any additional nights will be on your own).

Attendee Expectations

North American Academy is an immersive experience and is not your normal convention! We want attendees to get the most out of their experience, which comes with the following expectations:

- Remember that Academy is an immersive experience
NAA is designed to be transformative, so please keep in mind that the days will be full with sessions, group work, and other activities. Attendees are expected to be fully present barring any personal/work emergencies. If you would like to explore the host city or do other sightseeing, the discounted hotel rate is available before and after the scheduled Academy dates.

- Come with a growth mindset

Participants are expected to come with a growth mindset, which means embracing new ideas, other viewpoints, and encouraging constructive conversation.

- Trust the process

An agenda will not be released so be ready to brace the unexpected! Attendees must participate in every module and activity in order to graduate. All parts are mandatory, so please do not expect to be able to attend work meetings or calls during the Academy. Participants can plan to be in sessions from early morning to late night.

- Practice respect for others

You'll be meeting people from across industries, nationalities, etc. so mutual respect of different viewpoints and backgrounds is critical to getting the most of your experience.

What's Included

Your registration fee includes:

- Four nights of hotel (double rooms for double occupancy or triple occupancy for suites)
- Over 30 hours of development sessions, activities, and content
- Networking with other young changemakers from across the United States and world
- Daily breakfast, Wednesday reception, lunch on Thursday and Friday
- Graduation ceremony and celebration

The price for the JCI North American Academy is:

- JCI USA members - $375 (Early bird until May 31 then regular will be $425)
- JCI International members - $425
- Non-members - $500
- Event Team - $125

Academy Schedule

We consciously do not provide attendees with a detailed schedule. Attendees should plan on arriving on Wednesday in time for the evening reception on Wednesday, November 1 at 7:00 PM. The Academy officially starts on Thursday, November 2 at 8:00 AM and attendees are required to be registered and present at that time.

The Academy ends with the graduation cocktail reception on Saturday evening, November 4. Please keep in mind that the days during the Academy are fully booked and attendees will not have time to leave the Academy during this time. All modules are mandatory - sightseeing, shopping, etc. need to be conducted before or after the Academy.

Information Updates

Attendees will receive several emails leading up to the event and will be sent to the email submitted with the registration form. Should you change the email address, please let Newlyn Wing know.

Weather

November is generally comfortable in New Orleans, with lows hovering around the 50°F/10°C and highs around 75°F/24°C.

What to Pack

We recommend packing:

- Attire: General dress is business casual and the final presentations and graduation ceremony will be business.
- Note-taking items: pens/paper as well as a laptop or tablet for group work.
- Business cards
- Cash* (US Dollars are accepted in New Orleans) for various activities

*Do I need any money?

Academy registration includes 4 nights hotel accommodation (shared room), breakfast at the hotel, 2 days lunch (academy days), happy hour snack/networking break each evening, and a cocktail reception graduation ceremony. Dinner each evening is on your own, to be coordinated through your group assignments.

Insurance

JCI USA takes no responsibility for the participants' insurance (health, travel, etc). Photo and risk waivers will be required to be signed at registration on Wednesday evening.

Visas

Citizens from some countries require a visa to enter the USA. The visa application should be made at the USA Embassy in your country before departure. Please contact JCI USA nwing@jciusa.org if you have any questions or need further assistance.
