

CAI California

Common Interest Development Law Course

CONDUCTED IN THREE 2.5-HOUR SESSIONS

Mar 18, 20, 22, 2024 via ZOOM
9:00 AM - 12:00 PM each day

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Managers of community associations
Board members and leaders of community associations
Professionals who service community associations

WHY ATTEND? You will...

Gain the in-depth legal knowledge required to operate and manage a community association

REGISTER AT WWW.CAIOC.ORG

Member Manager/HOA Leader $75
Nonmember Manager/Homeowner Leader $95
Member Business Partner $145
Nonmember Business Partner $195

This course satisfies CAMICB 8-hour law course requirement.

CAI's California Common Interest Development Law course is the most comprehensive legal course available for professionals managing community associations and board members. If you manage community associations or are a board member, don't miss the in-depth legal knowledge you will gain from participating in this 8-hour course. Participants will be provided with a comprehensive review of California and Federal laws affecting community associations. Community managers will gain a greater understanding of the Davis-Stirling Act, California Corporations Code and common law and specifics related to common interest developments.

FACILITATORS

Matthew Gardner, Esq.
Richardson|Ober LLP

Cyrus Koochek, Esq.
SwedelsonGottlieb

Lisa Tashjian, Esq. CCAL
Beaumont Tashjian

SPONSORS

Sponsorships Available

