AML in South Africa

Training outline

Introducing our AML training programme

This course kicks off our AML training programme with a holistic overview of the regulatory environment, a look at the RMCP, a risk-based approach and more. It provides the audience with a high-level understanding of the ecosystem and framework for AML/CFT/CPF in South Africa.

Who should attend

The programme is specifically recommended for those who are planning to write the AMLC Prac (SA) board exam, e.g.

- AML advisors
- Consultants providing AML compliance related services to clients
- Assurance providers
- AML compliance officers
- Internal auditors
- Risk managers

Key take-aways

This course lays the groundwork for the AML training programme. It will position how to:

- Interpret and apply the Risk Management and Compliance Programme
- Implement the Risk Based Approach to AML/CFT
- Perform and/or oversee operational AML/CFT functions such as Sanctions Screening and Transaction Monitoring
- Identify risks and gaps in the AML/CFT RMCP and your organisation's application thereof
- Advise stakeholders across the business regarding the operational, as well as risk management rationale for the measures described in the RMCP
- Assist the AMLCO in keeping the RMCP current and aligned with business operations and governance

Preparation for the course

We recommend that you read through the following before attending this course:

- The Financial Intelligence Centre Act 38 of 2001, pre-amble, obligations on accountable institutions, schedule 1
- PCC53 on the risk management and compliance programme in terms of section 42 of FICA, 2001
- Familiarise yourself with the FIC's website: <https://www.fic.gov.za/>
