

Wounded Nature Coastal Debris Removal Inventory/Cost Breakdown – January 2024

Estimated Total Removal Costs $4,925,000

CHARLESTON COUNTY - $2,805,000

Stono River – 40,000

3 sunken recreational boats 40,000

Nowell Creek – 850,000

Large barge used as a drydock and abandoned in the 60s 850,000

Folly Creek – 250,000

Steel barge near Sol Lagare – 250,000

Edisto River – 120,000

Broken up shrimp boats on the southern bank of the North Edisto river across from Bohicket Creek 120,000

Ashley River – 95,000

Bellows sunken steel hull 40' sailboat across from Citadel 45,000

Sunken sailboat in marsh on Dolphin Island across from Dolphin Cove Marina 15,000

5 derelict boats 35,000

Wappoo Cut – 300,000

Dereck's sunken barge – 300,000

Shipyard Creek 1,160,000

Abandoned and sunken crab boat in marsh before entering creek. 15,000

Sunken Navy steel hull 80 ft vessel from 1947 550,000

Sunken debris items adjacent to navy vessel 100,000
Steel 100 ft barge behind sunken vessel 200,000
Marsh edge bulk debris on east side going in 20,000
Sunken small tender adjacent to Sandy 40,000
Sunken houseboat 30,000
Sunken recreational boats (2) back in Sandy's area 40,000
Small steel barge 60,000
Shoreline and shallow creek large debris items 35,000
Sandy's docks and junk 70,000

Cooper River – 540,000
Railroad bridge to nowhere that is breaking apart 250,000
Large steel barge across from Detyens shipyard 250,000
Large dock pieces along shoreline 40,000

Shem Creek -140,000
Sunken shrimp boat at edge of channel 140,000

Goat Island area – 160,000
North of goat island – 7 sunken vessels – 140,000
East of goat island – 2 derelict recreational vessels 20,000

GEORGETOWN AREA - $470,000

North Santee River – 50,000
1 sunken sailboat, 3 floating derelict vessels 50,000

Sampit River -210,000

Sunken shrimp boat across from Hidden Valley Marina 80,000

2 sunken barges near rt 17 bridge 100,000

Shoreline dock debris 80,000

2 recreational boats 30,000

Downtown area (Georgetown) – 210,000

Old dock debris on goat island 120,000

2 sunken and 4 floating recreational boats 90,000

HORRY COUNTY - $60,000

Coastal debris removal (most along ICW and Little River)– 60,000

BEAUFORT COUNTY – $740,000

Ward Creek – 180,000

Gay Fish – sunken shrimp boat in the marsh – 70,000

Gay Fish – derelict and abandoned commercial fishing boat in marsh – 50,000

Shoreline and marsh debris including dock debris – 60,000

11 derelict and abandoned recreational boats – 80,000

sunken barge at Buckingham Landing between Hilton Head and Bluffton 300,000