Airport information

Jomo Kenyatta International Airport in Nairobi is Kenya’s largest aviation facility and the busiest airport in East Africa with over 40 passenger airlines and 25 cargo airlines.

It has been termed as Africa’s premier hub and the ideal gateway into and out of East and Central Africa.

Passport

Ensure your passport has 6 Months of validity from the date of entry.

Non-East Africa Community (EAC) Citizens who require a Visa are kindly reminded to visit the nearest Kenyan Embassy or Consulate of their country of residence. Alternatively, arrangements can be made to receive one on arrival.

Visit this link for detailed Visa information <https://evisa.go.ke/eligibility>

Participants are advised to have their return ticket, passport, invitation letter, yellow fever card, and copies of confirmed accommodation.

Health Requirements

Proof of Covid-19 vaccination or pre-departure COVID-19 TEST is no longer required for travelers arriving in the country.

Travelers who exhibit flu-like symptoms will however be required to fill the passenger locator form on the 'jitenge' platform: https://ears.health.go.ke/airline_registration/

General Health

Check with your travel consultant or local medical practitioner on current medical advice on typhoid fever, cholera, and hepatitis.

Yellow Fever

A valid Yellow Fever Certificate is a MUST.

Weather

November is a warm month in Nairobi, with a gentle breeze, but the predicted weather is 24° / 16° with chances of rainfall.

Travel Insurance

Ensure that you have proper travel insurance cover in place to cater for any arising medical/accident expenses. The Global Logistics Convention organizers are not liable to take responsibility for any of the following:

Participation

Registration is the first step to having access to the link to attend virtually.

To register, go to the website (<https://globallogisticsconvention.com>) and follow the prompts for the registration process.

Your registration is the gateway to planned activities including the familiarization trip, the exhibition and full participation in the convention.

Registration

Registration is online via the website at www.globallogisticsconvention.com

Collection of Badges

Badge collection is open starting the 21st of November 2023., outside the entrance of the convention venue.

Driving

A driving license is required, and to rent a car, you will need an international driving permit. Driving is on the left hand side of the road in mainly right hand drive vehicles and main roads between towns are paved and maintained.

Security

Nairobi is a major city, thus, take precautionary measures as you would in any cosmopolitan city.

- Avoid walking late at night and take a taxi when necessary.
- Keep your travel documents out of sight or deposit them in the safety deposit boxes provided by the hotel.
- If you need to, only carry around small amounts of cash with you.
