Prosecution of Lawyer Alex Murdaugh for Murder and Theft from Clients

Given by the Attorney General of South Carolina, Alan Wilson, and his lead prosecutor on the case, Creighton Waters, this presentation will focus on the high profile investigation, prosecution, and conviction of prominent South Carolina lawyer Alex Murdaugh by jury trial for the murders of his wife and child, and by plea for years of theft from clients and others. The presentation will explain the role in the South Carolina judicial system of the Attorney General, the State Grand Jury, the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, and other partners working on the matter, and their collective efforts in uncovering and presenting the case to the jury and the court.
