Practice description

Panya has more than 15 years experience practicing in the areas of international tax and international trade. He provides tax, customs, and excise tax advice from both a planning and a compliance perspective. Panya gained extensive experience in international tax planning and U.S. customs valuations during his time spent with the Tax Practice Group of Baker McKenzie's Sydney Office, as well as with the Trade Practice Group of the Washington, D.C. Office.

Panya has assisted many clients from various industries in dealing with tax planning, compliance and audits, particularly regarding offshore and onshore investments, general tax advice, tax privileges, indirect taxes, and tax and customs audits. Panya is part of a team that has successfully litigated several cases of tax planning, transfer pricing, customs valuation, excise tax, and investment privileges.

Panya is Member of the Tax Committee, Excise Tax Sub-Committee, and the Customs Sub-Committee of the Thai Chamber of Commerce.
