Speakers

Dr. Melissa Smith is a board certified Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Anesthesia and Analgesia. She completed her Bachelor of Science at Duke University with a major in chemistry, following which she earned her Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree from Cornell University, and went on to Boston University School of Medicine where she obtained a PhD in pharmacology. Her clinical training includes a rotating internship at Angell Animal Medical Center in Boston, followed by a residency in anesthesia and analgesia at the University of Georgia. Dr. Smith joined the staff of the Animal Medical Center in 2018. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her human and non-human family of parrots, dogs and newts, and enjoying the rich cultural landscape of New York.

Jesse Cornell, MS Ed, LVT, VTS (Anesthesia/Analgesia) graduated from Medaille College in 1997 where she obtained her A.S. Degree in Veterinary Technology. She has primarily focused her career on small animal anesthesia for the past 20 years in emergency/referral/teaching hospitals in Boston and New York. She is currently a NYS licensed veterinary technician and a clinical educator at the Animal Medical Center in NYC for technicians and assistants. She received her VTS in Anesthesia in 2011. Her favorite part of her job is mentoring colleagues. Outside of work she enjoys a diversity of art, music, exploring hiking trails with her husband, and keeping up with her adventurous, silly, and energetic 5 and 2 year old sons.
