

Headline: LAOS WON 4 BRONZE MEDALS IN USA

Six promising students from the International School of Laos brought pride and honour to themselves, their families, their school and Laos as they took home four bronze medals and two honourable awards from the USA Copernicus International Olympiad held recently in New York City, USA.

The Olympiad was attended by 1,531 students from 26 countries.

The Bronze Awards were won by Nonthakan Thippavong, Soutsakhone Vixathip, Xayyalath Rasphone and Yod A Nanh Barnchit, while Honourable Mention went to Alisa Douangkeomany and Thanaxap Thippavong.

The Principal of the International School of Laos, Mr Ulvi Shirinov, said "We thank our teachers, especially Teacher Hikmet Saidzoda, who tirelessly supervised our students during the preparation and the actual competition. We also give our sincerest gratitude to the parents of our students who supported this worthwhile endeavour."

"To our students, you exceptionally well deserve these congratulations for your diligent work and commitment. We are proud of you!"
